CALVARY CEMETERY
Established in 1921 - 160 Acres

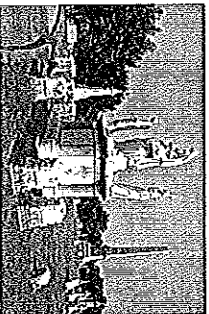

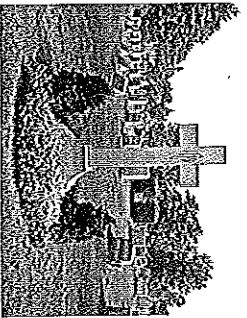

Calvary Cemetery opened in 1921 and is the largest of the Catholic Cemeteries. Calvary is home to the Catholic Cemeteries office. A statue of Rachel mourning silently sits in the center of the Holy Innocents section for infants of all faiths.

Archbishops Floresh and McDonough are buried at Calvary in the section for Diocesan priests. The Sisters of Mercy, Resurrectionist Priests and Xaverian Brothers also have lots here.

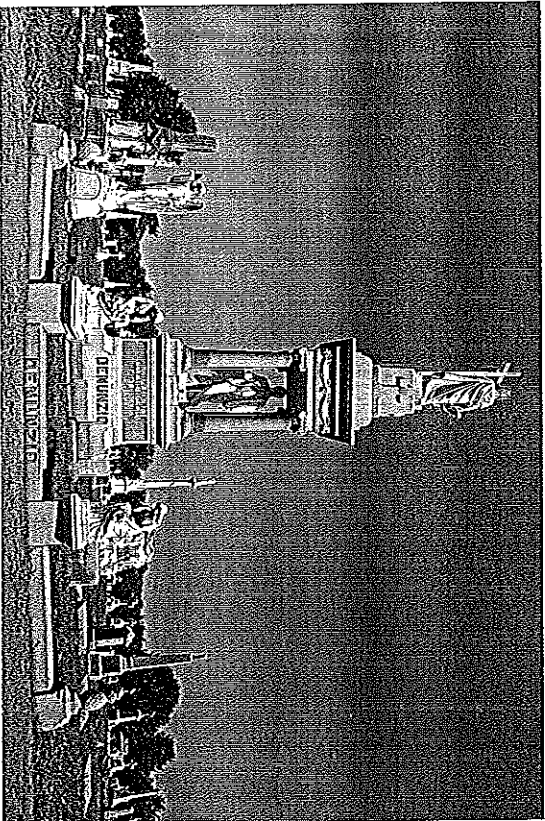

Various sized lots, community mausoleums and columbariums, two communal chapels and family mausoleums transform the valleys and hills into a city of stone and art. Approximately 50,000 people have been laid to rest at Calvary.

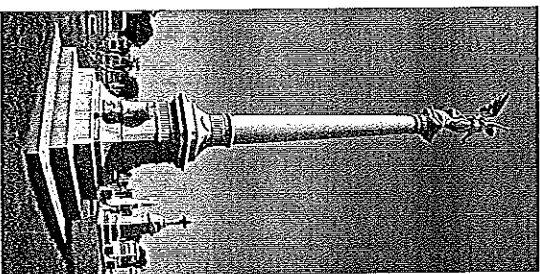

ST. LOUIS CEMETERY
Established in 1867 - 43 Acres

The first St. Louis Cemetery opened for services in 1811 and was located behind the original St. Louis Church at 10th and Main Streets. When St. Louis Church was relocated in 1831, the grave sites were moved to the Catholic section of Western Cemetery. The grave sites were later moved to the present St. Louis Cemetery which was opened in 1867.

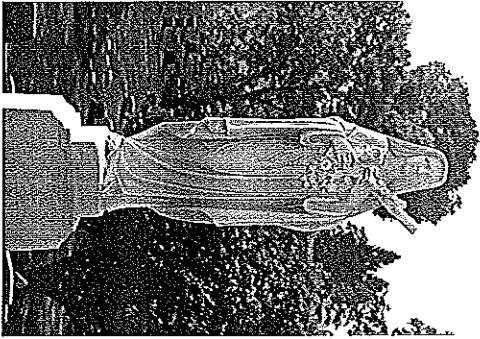

St. Louis Cemetery was known as the "Irish" Catholic cemetery, but Catholics from many different heritages have been laid to rest here. Diocesan priests, Xaverian Brothers and Little Sisters of the Poor have lots in St. Louis Cemetery.

Over a mile of limestone wall surrounds the property. Close to 50,000 burials have taken place at St. Louis Cemetery.

ST. MICHAEL CEMETERY
Established in 1851 - 48 Acres

St. Michael Cemetery opened in 1851 and was designated as a German Catholic Cemetery. The property was originally called "St. Michael-Gottes Acker" which means "God's Acre".

The parishes of St. Boniface, St. Martin, and St. Vincent de Paul were originally responsible for the maintenance of St. Michael. St. Elizabeth of Hungary added its support in 1906.

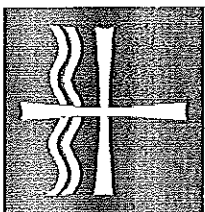

Diocesan and Franciscan priests, Ursuline Sisters, Sisters of St. Frances and Sisters of Notre Dame have their lots at St. Michael. This cemetery has provided burials for approximately 40,000 people.

Originally called St. Mary's, St. John opened in 1851. It was often referred to as the "German Catholic cemetery near Portland". More than 8,400 burials have taken place at St. John.

ST. JOHN CEMETERY
Established in 1851 - 9 Acres

Serving the Catholic Community since 1851

ARCHDIOCESE OF LOUISVILLE

All through life the Catholic Church is present to the living by baptizing their new members, celebrating their growth and development, blessing their marriages, and praying for them during an illness. Since death is a natural part of this life, it is only fitting that the Catholic community be present at the time of death. Death as seen through the eyes of a Christian is not the end, it is simply a natural passageway to everlasting life. Burial in a Catholic cemetery is a statement of continued belief in that everlasting life, even in death.

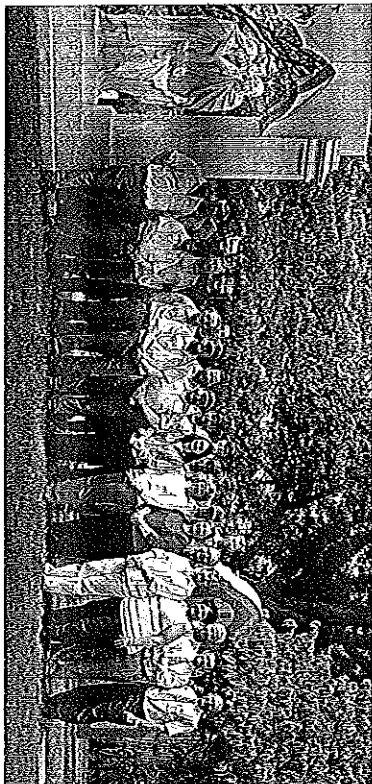

As people of faith, our burial places have an important meaning for us, since they are sacred places. Each visit to the cemetery is a reminder to us of the love, fellowship and faith that we shared with our deceased family members and friends. It is also a reminder to us of our own mortality and our own belief in the Resurrection.

We have prepared this brochure which can be easily retained as a reference material on the Catholic Cemeteries. It contains a summary of often asked questions you may have regarding cemeteries and Catholic burial. We hope you will retain this information so that it may serve you in the future.

MISSION STATEMENT

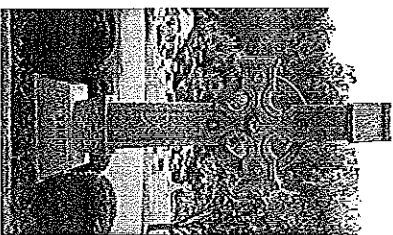

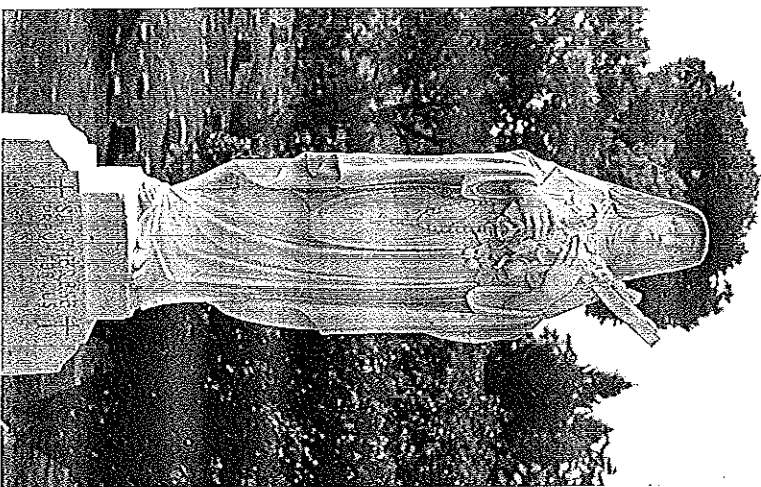

"The services of Catholic Cemeteries are a ministry of the Archdiocese of Louisville. We offer the rite of burial to the Catholic Community and all of God's people. We commit ourselves to the Gospel and Catholic Tradition. We affirm the sacredness of human life and profess the resurrection of the body and everlasting life."

The staff of the Catholic Cemeteries will always be here to provide sensitive and caring service as you make decisions about your cemetery needs.

Many special services and events are celebrated at the Catholic Cemeteries throughout the year:

- Stations of the Cross (during Lent).
- Cemetery Sunday (October).
- All Souls' Day Mass (November).
- Infant Prayer Service (the last Wednesday of each month).

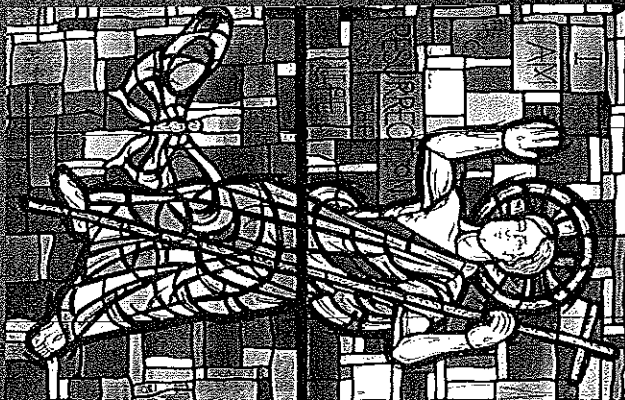

ABOUT CATHOLIC CEMETERIES

The Catholic Cemetery Agency of the Archdiocese of Louisville operates and maintains the four Archdiocesan Cemeteries. They are Calvary Cemetery, St. Michael Cemetery, St. Louis Cemetery, and St. John Cemetery.

The offices for the four Archdiocesan cemeteries are located at Calvary.
